What this service is

An online virtual try-on: a user uploads a photograph, selects a garment from a catalogue of items sold by third-party retailers, and receives an AI-generated visualisation of that garment on the person in the photograph.

We are not a retailer. We do not sell garments, hold stock, set prices, take payment for goods, ship, or handle returns. Purchases are made on third-party retailers' own websites, under their own terms. See the Terms of Use and the Affiliate Disclosure.

Nothing on this site is for sale today. Membership plans shown on the pricing page are a preview: no payment provider is connected and no money is taken.
